15.4.53

So far as Sri V. Rangaya is concerned, it seems desirable in the interest of work, to retain him in Vavuniya as with his past experience he can expedite the work.

But

As regards the substitute to be appointed in the place of Sri Lyn. Krishnamoorthy who has applied for leave for 2½ only normally the next in the panel ie. Sri Sambandam should be appointed. But some charges are pending against him and the charges relate to delays. He is also at present on leave on medical grounds till 25.4.53. The magnitude of the charges is, however, not known and till the charges are disposed, the only Course is to resort to an emergency appointment. The point for consideration is whether Sri Sambandam against whom charges are pending should be appointed under emergency powers or the next to him in the panel ie. Sri Kanesan should be appointed. Since charges are pending against Sri Sambandam and as it is proposed

To make a fresh emergency appt. perhaps Sri Menon can be appointed under the emergency powers. The Commr. may, however, be asked to dispose off the cases, without delay so that the question of regular appointment Sri Sambandam can be taken up.
